BY LORIANE CATELOY ROSE

THE CHOREOGRAPHER

Loriane Cateloy Rose

Loriane Cateloy-Rose is a young dancer, choreographer, and dance teacher based in Paris.

She develops her art through a variety of creative projects: choreography, filming, stage productions, photo shoots, artistic direction, and more.

A creative spirit from a very young age, she began choreographing and producing shows at the age of 10. She has always been driven to bring her ideas to life and expand her artistic universe.

After completing a specialized dance curriculum in classical and jazz dance at the Boulogne-Billancourt Conservatory, she obtained her State Diploma as a certified jazz dance teacher.

She further trained in Los Angeles and New York, where she explored less academic styles such as contemporary, street jazz, and heels. She instantly fell in love with heels dance, which she studied and perfected in the classes of Yanis Marshall.

She later joined the Flow Dance Academy, where she learned the foundations of urban dance styles.

These discoveries allowed her to craft her own artistic signature — a unique choreographic style that blends academic technique with feminine and commercial energy.

Loriane teaches various workshops and classes in Paris, notably at Lax Studio, Studio Harmonic, and with Neodance Academy, as well as across France and Europe, where she shares the different styles she practices.

She also works as a dancer for music videos, commercials, and television shows, and recently joined the Cabaret Nu, choreographed by Yanis Marshall.

THE COMPANY

Awakening dance company

Founded in 2023 by Loriane Cateloy-Rose, Awakening Dance Company is a dance company that blends a variety of styles.

Loriane draws inspiration from the many techniques she acquired during her training, such as classical and jazz, while also embracing the disciplines she practices today, including contemporary, heels, and street jazz. She enjoys fusing these influences to enrich and expand her artistic universe.

Awakening symbolizes that moment of emergence — when the artist breaks through their own limits.

It is this pursuit of transcendence that Loriane seeks to share through her company: dancing to reach that elusive state every artist longs for.

"AWAKENING EMBODIES THAT MOMENT WHEN THE ARTIST TRANSCENDS THEIR OWN LIMITS AND REACHES A HIGHER STATE OF BEING."

ECHOS OF THE SEA

IN THE DEPTHS OF THE OCEAN, WHERE THE MEMORY OF DESPAIR AND THE GLEAM OF HOPES INTERTWINE, THESE SILHOUETTES APPEAR LIKE A MIRAGE AT THE EDGE OF THE SHORE.

RIVALESCENCE

"RIVALESCENCE" IS AN INVENTED WORD, MERGING "RIVALRY" AND "EMERGENCE." IT EVOKES THE IDEA THAT RIVALRY, FAR FROM REMAINING A MERE CONFLICT, TRANSFORMS, EVOLVES, AND GIVES BIRTH TO SOLIDARITY AND SISTERHOOD. IT SYMBOLIZES HOW COMPETITION BETWEEN WOMEN, RATHER THAN DIVIDING, CAN REVEAL A SHARED STRENGTH.
